LITTLE JOTTINGS BY THE WAY.

The unsightly banners which have adorned (?) the telephone poles about the city were taken down, on Wednesday, by Workhouse Keeper Emil Haldi. Thanks!

The alarm from box 87, on Sunday evening, about 7:30 o'clock, was occasioned by a trash pile burning on the heights of the West Side.

In keeping with the former kindly acts of that gentleman, with regard to the new capital building, Mr. Frank G. Staggs has had a solid silver trowel made by M. A. Solbert for use at the laying of the cornerstone to-day. It will be turned over to the State Historical Society after that. Mr. Staggs furnished the spade with which the first earth was upturned for the foundation.

The classic old "Mansion House" block, corner of Main and St. Clair streets, together with the storeroom, etc., next door to their store, has been purchased by Messrs. R. K. McClure & Son from Dr. V. A. Kaltenbrun. Consideration $27,000. It will be converted into a modern business block, with storerooms on the lower floor and office rooms above.

Rev. C. R. Hudson will leave for a European tour about the 29th of this month. He will be away about three months. He has been given leave of absence by the Christian Church.

Rev. Wm. Crowe has been given a leave of absence from the pulpit of the Southern Presbyterian Church for two months, and will utilize the time by traveling in Europe. He will sail about July 5th.

The Democratic State Central Committee has called a primary for the nomination of a State ticket, to include a U. S. Senator, to be held at the same time with the regular State election in November.

The Day law, forbidding the co-education of whites and blacks, has been decided Constitutional by the Court of Appeals. The provision, however, forbidding the location of schools within 25 miles of each other was declared unconstitutional and void.

And now the latest sensation in Lexington is that the wily red fox, Col. C. J. Bronston, has been caught and squeezed in a pool-room deal to the extent of nearly $30,000. Who would have believed it?

AT BRIDGE.

FRANKFORT, KY.

GRANITOID SIDEWALK.

Capt. I. T. West has just completed a granitoid sidewalk in front of his residence on Main street, diagonally across from our office. This is a thing long needed. It is one of the principal thoroughfares of the city.

This reminds us that Frankfort can take the premium for the extent to which she has put down these splendid walks. She has more than any city of its size in the country.

A MIRACULOUS CURE.

The following statement by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parent and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." Its the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic, guaranteed. 50c and $1.00 at all druggists.

A SPLENDID APPOINTMENT.

President Roosevelt, on Saturday, appointed Judge George Durrelle, of Louisville, U. S. District Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky.

This is one of the best appointments ments that the President has ever made. By his long service as Assistant District Attorney he had become unusually well qualified for the place, and his splendid service as Appellate Judge has added to his qualifications.

SUPERIORITY PROVES ITSELF.

The sincerest tribute that can be paid to superiority is imitation. The many imitations of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve that are now before the public prove it the best. Ask for DeWitt's.

Good for burns, scalds, chafed skin, eczema, tetter, cuts, bruises, boils and piles. Highly recommended and reliable. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

CHILD AWFULLY SCALDED.

On Monday last an infant son of Mr. Allie McDonald, who lives out in the country, overturned a coffee pot, throwing the boiling fluid over his chest, abdomen, and arms, inflicting terrible injuries.

Dr. O. B. Demaree was summoned and did all in his power for the relief of the little sufferer.

THE WISDOM OF ANIMALS.

You can not induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself, and gets well. The stomach, once over-worked, must have rest the same as your feet or eyes. You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. Kodol for dyspepsia takes up the work for your stomach, digest what you eat and give it a rest. Put it back in condition again. You can't feel good with a disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

THE PACIFIC COAST.

Timely Hints to Portland Tourists Seeking Reliable Information.

If you contemplate a trip to the Pacific Coast or Puget Sound country during the period of low rates to Portland and California points, you should realize the value of a few suggestions of how best to see most without extra cost, including Banff, the Beautiful in the Canadian Rockies; a sea trip from Victoria and Vancouver to the Exposition City; America's virgin play ground, Yellowstone Park; Mount Hood or Mount Shasta; the Mormon capitol, Salt Lake City, and its great dead sea; the mines and mountains of Colorado; the sublime Grand Canon that no brush has ever copied, and to see and reach all by the most comfortable and luxurious means of travel, it would pay you to confer with a Monon Route Agent while in Louisville, for his office is literally stacked with beautiful illustrated literature on the subject, and all intelligently furnished. Long distance telephone talks may help you. Both phones, 1181. Address E. H. Bacon, D. V. A., Monon Route, Louisville, Ky.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 16, 1906

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Worthy Young Man Sealed to Death.

Early Monday morning, while Mr. Will Mitchell, the engineer at the Old Taylor Distillery, was at work near the steam pump, a blue collapsed throwing the hot water and steam all over him, literally cooking him to death.

Mr. Mitchell was alone at the time, and was not discovered for some time after the accident occurred.

As soon as the awful discovery was made, Mr. Mitchell was taken to his home near by and Drs. O. B. Demaree, Dorsie, Roemele and Coblin were summoned and did everything possible to relieve the sufferings of the young man. He lingered until about 12 o'clock, m., when death came to his relief.

Mr. Mitchell was the son of Mr. Robt. Mitchell; aged about 20 years, was an industrious, upright and honorable young man, popular with all who knew him.

The funeral services were conducted from the family residence, on Tuesday, by Rev. Dr. M. B. Adams, after which the remains were laid away.

The whole community is filled with sorrow at the death of this worthy young man. He was a great favorite on account of his genial and manly character.

We tender to the terribly bereft family our sincerest sympathy.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE POSTOFFICE.

In order to afford better accommodations to the public and avoid the congestion in the crowd at the carriers' window at the Postoffice, Postmaster Geo. L. Barnes has had a section of the lock boxes taken out and a door put in against the north wall of the lobby for the use of the clerks, carriers and other employees of the office. In addition, where the door has heretofore been and the adjacent space from the carriers' window, there are four new windows for the carriers to answer the calls of the crowds in the evening after the late mails are in and for the Sunday deliveries.

This is a great improvement over the old situation, and Postmaster Barnes deserves the thanks of the community for his thoughtfulness and desire to accommodate the public and facilitate the delivery of mail matter.

MISFORTUNES NEVER COME SINGLY.

In addition to the awful accident to Mr. Mitchell (an account of which is given elsewhere), the Old Taylor Distillery, the property of Messrs. E. H. Taylor, Jr. & Sons, had the misfortune to have the cylinder head of the engine to blow out on Monday, thus delaying business for quite a number of hours. Repairs were made and work resumed Monday night as usual.

Mental

Strain Affected General Health.

Doctor's Doses Weakened Stomach.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure Me.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve brings rest and sweet sleep to the tired brain worn out by the cares and anxieties of the sick room.

Read the following:
"I have always been healthy with the exception of a touch of rheumatism since my first illness some years ago. I assisted in nursing my husband for nearly three months when he departed this life and the mental strain I felt caused my trouble. Aside from extreme nervousness my trouble commenced with sore throat and neuralgia. My physician gave me purgative doses which weakened me very much and my stomach for a time seemed inactive. Mental strain and the dormant condition of my stomach soon took upon my general health. I had little appetite and was soon forced to stay in bed a greater part of the time. Within a week after the time I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve and Tonic I was up about the house. I continued their use until completely cured. My faith in Dr. Miles' Remedies has been strengthened by experience of other people, our daughter having used Restorative Nerve with splendid results in case of neuralgia and a friend to whom I sent a box of the Anti-Pain Pills reports that she has been completely cured of neuralgia by their use. I know of a number of others whom your medicine has helped in a large degree. I wish you continued success."

Kodol relieves indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, flatulence, and sour stomach. Kodol will make your stomach young and healthy again. HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Frankfort Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

Danger Signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys secrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediments and irregular passage.

Danger Signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the coming of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Frankfort proof.

W. H. Roberts, grocer, of 380 Todd street, says: "Being in the drug business a good many years and a graduate pharmacist, and my knowledge of medicine was sufficient to prove that kidney troubles were not performing the work which nature intended they should. For I suffered a great deal from a persistent nagging pain across the small of my back, and the secretions from the kidneys were highly colored, and so irregular, especially at night, that my rest was greatly disturbed. It was not until some two or three years ago that I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and I sent to a large neighboring city and got a box. I pronounced them a kidney remedy of the highest quality. My last complaint was cured at J. W. Gayle's drug store and I take a dose of them once in awhile as a tonic for the kidneys. A number of friends of mine to whom I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills have used them with great benefit."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

[For the Roundabout.] A STORY FOR BOYS—PROCTOR'S LIGHT.

Whether John Harland came to his death by accident or suicide remained a mystery. Doubtless in the rein of his despair he failed to notice where his footsteps tended, and unguardedly walked into the swollen stream. Or, it may be, that he shirked the new trials and ended them forever. If this were true it was cowardly in the main, to leave to the mercies of a selfish world the helpless wife and her brood of little ones. The neighborhood buried him with honors. Afterward it settled back again to the even tenor of its way ignoring the fact that the family were far more in need of assistance than the dead. But such is human nature. We give tears, and lavish love on every detail of the sad, while we seal up our affections for the ones about us. How, then, can we censure strangers for want of sympathy?

Mrs. Harland was prostrated, and had no plans by which bread could be earned for her children. Mary and Hal, sobered by the death of their father, forgot to fight, and little Blanche almost ceased to play. Proctor must put his shoulder to the wheel and assume charge of the family. At night he wept the bitterest tears. By day his smile was bright and his affection beautiful. His father's brother lived in S—, Could his pride be humbled, and help requested? Yes, for Bene's sake! The letter read thus:

"Dear Uncle Sam—Father is dead, mother ill. There are four of us beside our baby, who is a cripple, and we are very poor. Would you pay our rent for one year?"

Your nephew,
"PROCTOR HARLAND."

An answer came within the week. It was a little more of kin and less than kind:

"Proctor Harland: Your father has been dead to me for 20 years. His marriage ended our relationship, so his children have no claim upon me. Send the cripple child to the 'House of Aims,' where they care for such. Let the children go to the Home. Don't worry me

Weak Kidneys Bright's Disease and Diabetes

Use Dr. Shoop's Restorative to Cure the Cause, if You Suffer From These Symptoms.

Here are the symptoms of Kidney complaints: Gravel, pain in the back, urinary, urinary, highly colored urine, greasy froth or blood in it, stringy mucus in urine, unusual desire to urinate, pain in passing water, pain in the back and over the kidneys, hot, dry and itching skin, hair dry and brittle, pain in joints, legs feel heavy, sleeplessness, dizziness, loss of memory, general debility, irregularity of menstruation, loss of sight, hearing, weak, nervous, shifting from one foot to the other in an attempt to get comfortable. An improper position of the feet is often a cause of kidney trouble. Kidney medicines get their remedies called. They are practically useless. They excite the kidneys to unusual action, they cause over-activity. These diuretic remedies are then given, the frequent cause of serious kidney disease. Don't try to doctor the kidneys themselves, for you will only harm them. Their only strength is nerve power. Dr. Shoop's Restorative (Liquor) vitalizes the nerves that operate the kidneys. Sold and recommended by with any subsequent letters else you may repent it.

"Respectfully,
"HORACE HARLAND."

The household was unnerved over the contents of such a cruel letter. The children cried, but Proctor kept silence. A change came over the spirit of his dreams. He was no longer a boy, and with a new grace to his form and an added brightness to his smile he said:

"Don't cry, little mother! We will manage some how without his money. We know God helps those who help themselves, and with Mary and Hal I can lift you, Bene and little Sis over the moon if you wanted to go."

But when alone he was on his knees asking for the help that God (alone) could give. "Father used to say that in sorrow or distress ever to ask help of strangers, neither of relatives, but to put all trust in God and I will do it. I am determined now to ask Squire Mills what I must try to do."

Mr. Mills had always been a friend of the family, so Proctor went to him and laid the case plainly before him.

The friend said: "You surely do not intend to take care of the entire family, my boy? It is a great responsibility. Let me give you a piece of advice, but of course you can use your own judgment in accepting it. Your mother, with the little girls, could go to the Widows and Orphans Home, I could get them admitted at any time. Hal could get work at Forest Mills and you could take charge of my upper barley field. Is it a bargain?"

Satan whispered temptation to one when he was hungry, and lo the sublime answer:

"Man shall not live by bread alone!"

Then was offered the kingdoms of the world, but Jesus said: "Get thee hence, Satan," so to Proctor came the temptation to break bonds and go his own way. To study the books he had so long wanted, to win a name of which his State and country might feel proud. But he could never desert the dear ones now. They were dependent upon him for support. Better to be ignorant all one's life than to be guilty of so base ingratitude. The battle was fought and Mr. Mills knew the answer:

"I must keep charge of mother and the children. Father would wish it. If you hear of any work please let me know. I thank you for your kindness."

"Say, Proctor," replied his friend, "you are a brave boy. How would you like to take charge of the 'Little Burr Field' farm. Move over there and run it for me. You have the most wonderful oil in your lamp, my boy, and may yet show me the light in which my feet may walk."

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectation in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. CAPITOL CORNERSTONE LAYING.

The program and invitation for the laying of the cornerstone of the Capital at Frankfort are gotten up in handsome form of four pages, has on the front a cut of the new Capitol building with a smaller cut of the present, the old building, in one corner. Below this in Old English letters are the words, "We will sing one song of the old Kentucky Home," while on the back is the seal of Kentucky and below it the lines:

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead—
Who never to himself hath said—
This is my own—my native land."

BOYS who can PLAY
the GAME

WE WANT boys who can "play the game," boys who when they play ball hit it hard and get to "first," the boys who want to succeed and are bound to succeed. We need them and we help them. We pay them good money. They can buy cameras, bicycles, horses—one boy has even bought a house and lot. It's "easy money" SELLING

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

And there's more in it than the money, for we teach boys methods of success—we teach them how to work out their problems, teach them salesmanship, which is one of the best paid abilities in the business world. It's worth something to a boy to be connected with a large, successful house.

And we take good care of our boys. There are extra cash prizes, camping trips, and other special offers. A boy can start without its costing him a cent, for we furnish his first supply of magazines free, and the money from these will buy another supply, and so on.

We want to send free an interesting booklet about our boys. Get into the game NOW by writing for it.

OUT OF THE USUAL RUN.

We would call attention to the following circular:

On Sunday afternoon, June 24, the officers and members of Lexington Lodge, No. 1, will conduct the religious services at the Masonic Widows and Orphans Home in the city of Louisville.

An appropriate and pleasing song service will be rendered and the address will be made by one of the ministers of Lexington.

The children of the Home will assist with their own songs and music and the sight of hundreds of these little orphans at their devotions produces an impression that is not easily forgotten.

The Masonic Widows and Orphans Home in Louisville was the first fraternal widows and orphans home established in the United States, a fact that every Kentucky Mason should be justly proud of, though comparatively very few of them have ever visited it.

The Lodges, Chapters and Commanderies of Louisville have for years taken Sunday about in conducting the religious services in the Home Chapel. Through the kindness of Brother Isaac A. Kelly, the Superintendent, Lexington Lodge has been granted this privilege.

You are, therefore, requested to accompany the members of Lexington Lodge to Louisville on Sunday, June 24th. A special round trip rate of $1.25 will be granted by the C. & O. Railway and the train will leave Lexington at 8:20 a. m., reaching Louisville at 11 a. m.

As these services are public, the families and friends of our members are cordially invited to go.

ERRONEOUS IMPRESSION.

In our last week's issue, at the solicitation of a friend, we published two sections of the Kentucky Statutes in regard to school trustees, etc.

It seems that some persons thought that these sections governed the Board of Education of this city, which is a mistake, as they only apply to cities of the first class.
